

UN Commission on the Status of Women

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. NGO/CSW65 will take place from 15 to 26 March 2021 on a virtual platform with close to 30,000 advocates from all over the world. DFW and UNICEF USA are co-sponsoring the following event:

Date: Wednesday March 17th, 2021
Time: 7:00 to 9:00 pm ET
Title: Women, Gender Equality, and Climate Change
Panelists: DFW, UNICEF USA, Women's Earth Alliance, Health in Harmony, and Ripple Africa

Please register right away. The virtual platform is open.

1. Registering as an advocate. Save your login information and password if you need it again. There is a video on the page to walk you through how to register. Only registered advocates can participate.
2. You will receive an individual personal link to the Virtual Platform via email. This cannot be shared. Save this email.
3. Follow the link to the virtual platform. Look up the schedule there are about 650 events from across the world. Create your profile, select topics that you are interested in.
4. Find the DFW/UNICEF event on Wednesday the 17th at 7:00 pm. All events are in Eastern Time. Add to your schedule. Find your way back here on the day and at the time of the event. Just before the event you will see a Join button that you can connect to. The event will use zoom. This Join button on our schedule on the virtual platform is the only way to participate in the event.
5. Feel free to peruse all the events in the schedule and connect to advocates from around the world. You will come across some of our grantees. Feel free to peruse the Exhibit Hall and the Artisan Fair. Not all events on the schedule are live. Some have pre-recorded videos already loaded in their schedule.
